CORAM: R.M.S. KHANDEPARKAR &
V. M. KANADE, JJ.

DATE : 18th October, 2005.

P.C.:

1. None present for the petitioner. Ms. V.K. Khatu, the learned advocate appears for the Corporation. The learned advocate for the Corporation states that Resolution dated 16/09/1994, 31/08/1994 and 27/09/1994 which are sought to be challenged in these Petitions are no more in existence and different decisions have been subsequently taken by the Corporation and they are not being challenged.

2. In the circumstances, according to the learned Advocate appearing for the Corporation, Petitions are rendered infructuous. It is also submitted that similar challenge was made in Writ Petition viz. W.P. No. 2435 of 1994 to those decisions. However, in view of the change in circumstances, that Writ Petition has already been withdrawn.

3. For the reasons stated above, therefore, both the Petitions are disposed of as infructuous. Rule stands discharged. Interim relief, in any, stands vacated.

No order as to costs.
